Chapter 1 by AjThe1st

Me and Toby were walking through the woods for about 15 minutes until we came across this cabin. I told Toby to hang on while check the cabin. I checked the entire cabin except the bathroom, basement, garage, and two rooms. I told Toby to come on in. Knowing Toby he wanted to explore the house. I said

"Go ahead but don't shoot that gun unless you have to."

He replied with happiness in his words.

"OK!"

About after ten minutes of hearing Toby rummage through all the food and supplies i decided to help him. Then Toby went into the garage and started jumping up and down. He said he heard creeks on the floor, which meant there must have been a underground bunker because the garage floor was made of concrete. There was a rug covering the bunker so me and Toby lifted it and sure enough there was a wooden door leading deeper into the ground. I went over to a tool area in the garage it had a machete.

"Don't shoot that gun, we don't need to attract a hoard of zombies in the house i didn't clear the house 100%, only the main rooms.

I opened the door, lights were actually on down there, and in the corner of the room was a zombie eating on an old man. I told Toby to stay and keep guard. I went over to the zombie and decapitated it. Then I look closer at the man he had a revolver in his hand and a bullet through his head and a bullet missing next to him. I went back up the stairs and told Toby

Chapter 2 by Anime_1633

Toby looked at me. " Let me see," He said. " Be safe and remember not to shot unless you need to!" I yelled toward him as he went down the stairs. I decided to look in the other rooms while Toby was looking at the old man. I went around the corner and all of a sudden the hairs on the back of my neck stood on end. I gripped the machete with all my might. It felt like my hand was gonna burst. There was a door at the end of the hall that made me feel uneasy. A tall black door. As I walked up to it I got more scared but I got up all the courage in me and opened the door. Nothing was there.

I was then taken down as a zombie popped up from the blackness. I was pinned to the floor as he tried to bite at my neck. " Help, Toby!" I yelled. I then saw out of the corner of my eye the machete. I reached for it but couldn't reach. Then the zombie was blown of me. I looked up and I saw Toby with a smoking gun in his hand. The one that the old man had. Toby helped me up. " Thanks," I said. I heard the roar of more zombies in the woods. The gunfire allured them here. Toby looked at me and at the same time we both said... "RUN,"
